OUTLAW HORSES WIN OVER BRONCO BUSTERS

Cheyenne, Wyo., Aug. 20.—The second day's contests for the bronco busting championship of the world at the Frontier day celebration here saw three noted riders unhorsed. Carl Smith was fairly thrown by Rocking Chair, who bids fair to rival Steamboat as the worst horse ever topped during a championship contest. Dick Stanley, the present champion, will meet the best of the many entries in the finals Saturday. Steamboat is being held out for him, as he is the only man who ever rode that outlaw to a finish. The best time so far in the roping contests was made by Ed. McCarthy, today, who tied a steer in 44 2-5 seconds.
